

Thursday 20 August 2015

Dear LCA members

We would like to invite you to a special private view and afternoon tea on Wednesday 9 September, for a last chance to see our summer exhibition and an opportunity to buy a painting by one of the UK's most distinguished landscape painters. The event will take place in our spectacular double height gallery and will be attended by the artist.

Alan Cotton's work celebrates the natural world in which we live. The energy and dynamism in his paintings reflect his own prodigious energy, and over a lifetime of paintings, he has more than a thousand canvases to his name. The exhibition tells a story of adventurous travels and romance with paint. This major retrospective exhibition offers a unique opportunity to study the development of a contemporary landscape painter steeped in the Romantic tradition.

Please RSVP by Thursday 3 September by phone 01225 386777 or email ICIAinfo@bath.ac.uk. We very much look forward to welcoming you.

With kindest regards,

John Struthers
Director
Institute of Contemporary Interdisciplinary Arts (ICIA)

PROGRAMME Wednesday 9 September

- |               |   |
|---------------|---|
| 3.30 pm       | Guests arrive   |
| 4pm           | Afternoon tea is served, with introductions by Alan Cotton and John Struthers |
| 4.30 – 5.30pm | Afternoon Tea and Private View  |
| 6.00pm        | Finish  |